INDIANAPOLIS MAYOR TO BE FIRED OUT

OF OFFICE BY GRAND JURY IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS

Will Be Begun By the Prosecutor, Who Will Warm Up Things For Mr. Duvall Next Monday—In the Mean Time His Honor Is Sitting Tight and Tells the Powers That Be, To Crack Their Whip—How To Get Rid of His Wife In the Position She Holds, Is Undetermined.

Impeachment of John L. Duvall, mayor of Indianapolis, by the Marion county grand jury, the same body that indicted him on charges of violation of the corrupt practice act, was forecast at Indianapolis, Indiana, Wednesday as a means of ousting the executive from his office following his conviction by a jury in Marion county criminal court.

William H. Remy, Marion county prosecutor, and his two assistants, John W. Holtzman and Emsley W. Johnson, are expected to confer with in the next day or two to consider such action.

From a source close to the prosecutor's office it is predicted that the mayor would be ousted within the next 30 days. The grand jury has the power to file the impeachment articles that would be tried in the criminal court, the same as a trial on any indictment. A verdict of guilty would mean immediate suspension from office, despite an appeal to the supreme court.

Should this action be taken the question arises as to whether or not Mrs. Maude E. Duvall, the mayor's wife, is eligible to succeed her husband in the mayor's office. The city is in a peculiar legal tangle, a question having been raised as to the legality of city bonds signed by the mayor following his disqualification by the Marion county jury.

Just now the eyes of Indiana and Indianapolis are fixed on the arraignment of a galaxy of state and city officials in Marion county criminal court Monday.

Indiana faces the spectacle of seeing Ed. Johnson, governor, and Duvall, mayor of the Capital City, arraigned in court with murders, robbers and other men charged with petty crime.

Along with the mayor and the governor are to be arraigned George V. Coffin, political boss and chairman of the city and county Republican committees in Indianapolis; Robert I. Marsh, former law partner of the governor and former chief counsel for the extension department of the klan; John J. Collins, city purchasing agent; W. C. Buser, brother-in-law of the mayor and former city controller and Earl Garrett, market mayor.

No appearance by any attorney for the governor, Robinson, Symmes & Melson, the law firm of which United States Senator Arthur R. Robinson is the head, denied they had been retained by the governor. Judge James A. Collins, Marion county criminal court, announced that he would disqualify himself as the trial judge in the Jackson case, because of his activities as a candidate at the last election.

Duvall is to be arraigned on both affidavits and an indictment and the governor, Coffin and Marsh on indictments charging conspiracy to commit a felony in attempting to bribe former Governor Warren T. McCray.

The Democratic state committee, which has kept complete silence during the months of the political corruption expose in Indiana, broke over the traces Wednesday when R. Earl Peters, of Ft. Wayne, Democratic state chairman, in a bitter arraignment, took Arthur R. Gilliom, Indiana attorney general, to task for statements the latter made in a speech at Terre Haute Tuesday night.

ARREST HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Mrs. Guilford Brown was placed under arrest this afternoon by the police department at her home on Pinkney street for obstructing police in the discharge of their duties, and her husband was arrested for possession of intoxicating liquor. A gallon of liquor and a case of home brew were confiscated.

MAY RULE HUNGARY

There is said to be a deep-laid scheme to place the duke d'Aosta, cousin of the king of Italy and a favorite of Mussolini, on the vacant throne of Hungary. The plan is supposed to be backed by Great Britain and Italy, but probably would not please France.

Ship 500,000 Canaries

a Year From Germany.

Berlin.—Germany, the world's market for canary birds, annually ships about 500,000 of the little feathered warblers to America.

Since the beginning of the Sixteenth century, when these songsters were brought from the Canary Islands, they have been carefully and extensively bred in Germany. Within the last century, the "Harzer rollers" in the Harz mountains have acquired world-wide fame.

Through careful breeding the original green color of the birds has been changed to a bright yellow, while incessant and careful training has markedly enhanced their original marvelous vocal qualities.

The features of the canary-bird exhibitions regularly held in Berlin are the "song tournaments," at which the birds' vocal abilities are carefully appraised by expert breeders, who have made the surprising discovery that the green birds—resembling in color their wild tropical progenitors—are frequently better singers than their yellow brethren.

World Leisure Seen

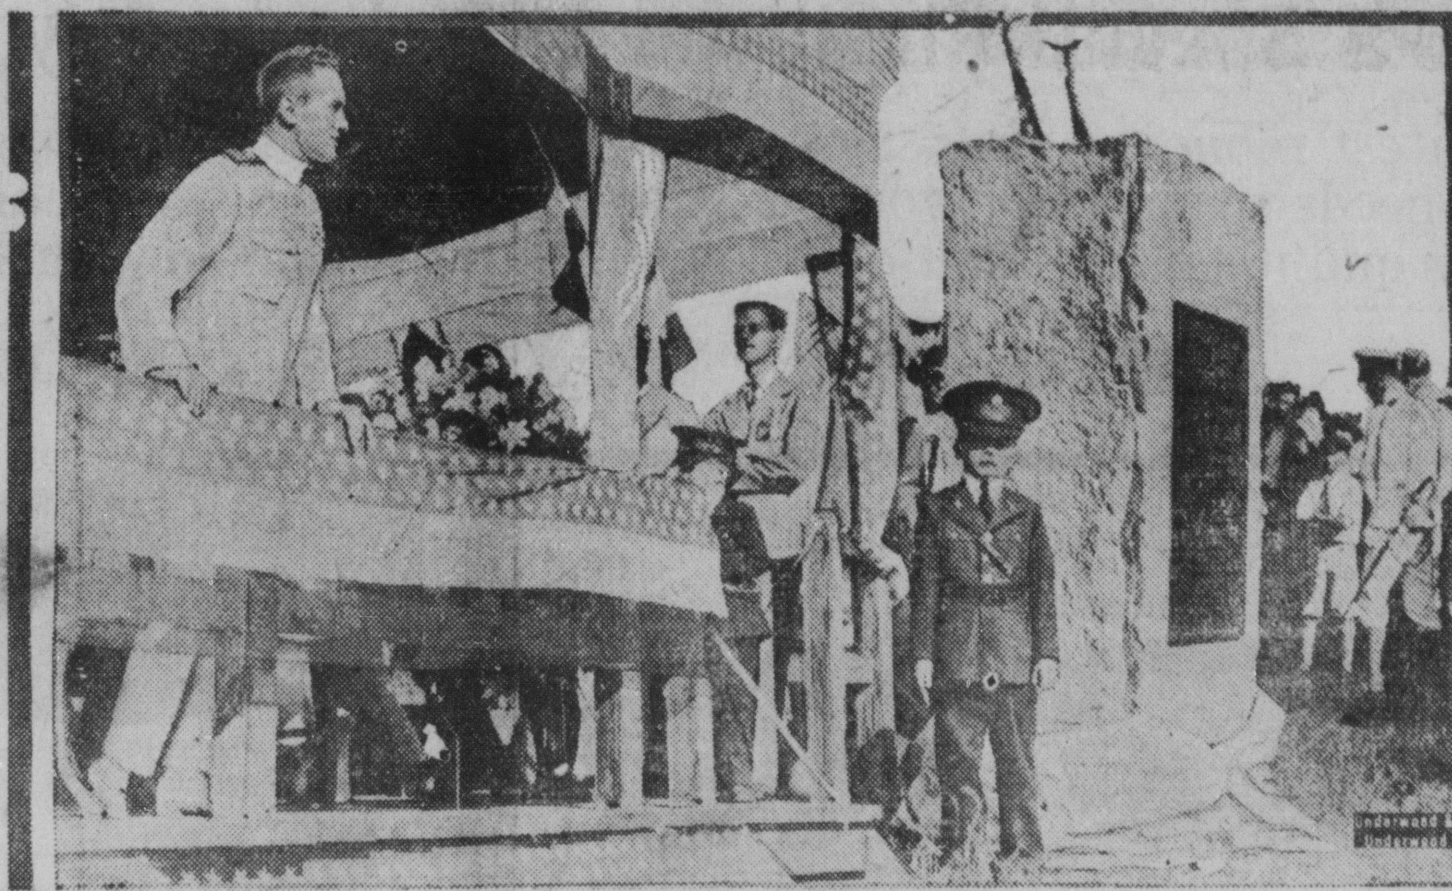

"When Atom Is Split"

London.—In half a century or so hardly anyone will have any work to do, says Dr. Percy Buck, professor of music in the University of London.

"In 50 years from now every human being will have a vast amount of leisure on his hands," explained Doctor Buck to the university teachers attending the summer vacation lecture course.

"If once the atom is split—and that is bound to happen in a certain number of years—there will be no need for coal, gas, electric light, steam or anything else like that. Think of it! We will be able to run a train from London to Edinburgh for half a penny, and to light the whole of London for New York for less than one single penny."

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From Wires
By Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

Youngstown—Five cases of diphtheria in the first grade of Bancroft school, Brownlee Woods, has caused much concern among the parents and patrons of the school.

Dayton—Mrs. Charlotte Grice, 28, plead not guilty to a charge of murder in the shooting of her husband last night and was ordered held for hearing Wednesday. She told police her husband, Raymond, 31, returned home intoxicated and attempted to strike her when she shot him.

Marion—No verdict was reached at the inquest conducted by a representative of the state fire marshal's office and County Coroner S. D. Osborn into the death of Saverio Canora, 42, whose burned body was found on the porch of his wife's home.

Dayton—The county jail here was equipped today with two sub-machine guns, firing 45 caliber bullets at the rate of 960 per minute.

Cleveland—"Dr." Homer J. Thompson, in the county jail, entered his eighth day of his hunger strike. His rebellion against treatment he says accorded him in the jail.

Toledo—John Thomas, 31, charged with killing Frank Lofas, 30, proprietor of the Italian gardens yesterday morning was at liberty today after Coroner Charles J. Henzler returned a verdict of homicide.

Gallipolis—Anti-Saloon League representatives met today in the Baptist church to effect an organization for the support of the Marshall bill which would restore system of justice courts in Ohio.

FUNERAL OF MISS DUNKLE

The funeral of Miss Malinda Dunkle who died at her home in Washington township Wednesday morning will be held at the Lutheran church Saturday at 2 o'clock. Rev. G. J. Troutman will officiate.

Nephews of the deceased will act as pallbearers. Interment in Forest cemetery.

H. M. RADER DEAD.

H. M. Rader, son of John Rader, of Pike county, died last Saturday at Indianapolis, Indiana. The funeral services were held Monday.

The deceased was related to the Rader family of this county.

RURAL MAIL CARRIER AND WAR VETERAN

Horatio A. Brown Joins the Silent Majority—Funeral
Monday, Oct. 3.

Death beckoned H. A. Brown, a Civil war veteran, at his home, 514 North Court street at 5:34 o'clock, Wednesday evening, September 28. He had been ill for the past six months of arthritis.

Horatio Alexander Brown was born in Roseville, Muskingum county March 18, 1848, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown.

He came to this county in 1872 and took a position with James Harsha, a monument dealer.

He married Miss Anna E. Delzell, June 28, 1876. His wife and one son and two daughters survive. They are Edward M. Brown, of Charleston West Virginia; Mrs. W. B. Gentry, of Providence, Rhode Island, and Mrs. J. W. Wilhelm, of Dayton. He also leaves two grandchildren, Florence and Harold Brown, of Charleston, West Virginia.

Of his immediate family, he leaves two brothers and one sister Howard Brown, of this city; Harry Brown, of Birmingham, Alabama; and Mrs. Sarah Oakley, of Logan.

Mr. Brown was a veteran of the Civil war, serving in the 151 and 191 regiments, O. V. I. Besides being a Civil war veteran, Mr. Brown was a veteran of the rural mail service. He was among the first rural mail carriers and made an efficient carrier. He had a sunny disposition and made friends easily and retained them. He was retired from the mail service on a pension seven years ago, after a faithful service of about twenty years.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church.

The funeral services will be held at his late home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Burial in Forest cemetery. Rural mail carriers will act as pallbearers.

Preceded the Umbrella

Before the umbrella came there was what was known as the quitasol—a parasol of oiled muslin, whose material was imported from India via England. The quitasol was a feminine monopoly. The man wore a "roque-laure," or cape of oiled muslin. The first umbrella was fashioned of this material and had ribs of rattan.

A CHARIVARI

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott J. Howard, the recently wedded couple gave them a belling at their home on Hanford street, Columbus, Tuesday evening. Those in the party from this city were; Mrs. John L. Howard and daughter, Miss Mary, Mrs. John Drum and daughter, Miss Elizabeth and son, Thomas Drum, Miss Alma Glick, Miss Leola Warner, Miss Catharine Riley, Joseph Good, Miss Rose Good and Miss Adah Howard. The young couple enjoyed the surprise and invited their guests to refreshments.

COLUMN OF FRUIT

This photograph shows the 35-foot-high fruit column which was erected at the Fifty-fourth annual "Canstatter Volksfest," held by the Canstatter Volksfest Verein of Philadelphia. The column contained three tons of fruit.

NEW BUSINESS FIRM.

L. M. Salter has leased the Lyman Bell garage, 146 West Main street, and will open a sales and service shop for the handling of the Oakland and Pontiac cars. Mr. Salter has recently been connected with the Circleville Motors company and knows the game from A to Z.

Both of the above named cars are not new in the market. They are both standard machines and are very popular.

The location for a new car agency is most excellent. The place has been overhauled and repainted and presents a bright appearance.

The name of the new firm will be the L. M. Salter Motors company.

KINDERGRATEN

Mrs. Tom Renick wishes to announce that she expects to open a kindergarten in this city not later than October 10, for children from three to six years of age. Anyone interested or desiring further information may call Mrs. Renick at 1440 as it may be impossible for her to see everyone, personally. 29septdl.

VETERANS OF CIVIL WAR RETURN FLAG

Boys In Blue Meet Boys In Gray and Surrender Banner Taken 63 Years Ago.

Another epic in the swiftly closing annals of the Blue and Gray was witnessed at Marianna, Florida, when federal veterans from Ohio returned to survivors of a Florida confederate brigade a tattered flag wrested at the battle of Franklin, Tennessee, November 3, 1864.

Gnarled hands gave and received the banner, while voices, broken by the 63 years which have intervened, spoke only praise for the former foe.

The flag, torn by shot and shell, was formally presented by Colonel W. W. Alcorn, Toledo, Ohio, who with Comrades Eli Bourdo and Judge E. D. Potter, are three of the six survivors of the old Fourteenth Ohio Infantry which fought at Franklin and followed Sherman on his historic march thru Georgia.

"Florida need feel no shame in the loss of the battle banner at Franklin," said Colonel Alcorn. "It was taken behind our own entrenchments and it took a courageous group of fighting men to ever get there."

"You had us licked at Franklin, but fortunately for us your command apparently failed to realize at the crucial moment just now completely you had us encompassed."

Turning them to the torn flag, the aged federal veteran reverently said: "The flag itself has been bathed in the blood both of the north and the south. Because it was taken within our lines, behind our own breastworks, we had prized its possession highly. However, our pleasure in returning it to the men whose courage we had cause to admire and incidentally, were forced to respect, is greater than our pride in its possession."

The presentation exercises climaxed the annual reunion of Florida confederate veterans. Never before had a federal soldier been so welcomed at a Florida reunion and never had a Union veteran ridden at the head of the parade before.

"Yankee Doodle" was played and applauded at the concerts and took its place alongside "Dixie" the stirring martial air of the Southland.

A reception honoring the Ohio veterans, who represented the Toledo Memorial association, followed the flag presentation.

CANTON CHIEF
Hexamer, Active in Mellet Case, Succeeds John Wise.
Canton, O., Sept. 27.—(UP.)—Earl W. Hexamer, former safety Director and acting chief of police, who was partly responsible for the success of the Mellett murder investigation in co-operation with Detective Ora Slater, was today appointed chief of police of Canton, succeeding the late John F. Wise, killed in an automobile accident last week.
Hexamer was named acting chief at the time Seranus A. Lengel was removed. The appointment was made by the Civil Service Commission and Mayor S. M. Swartz, who set aside the existing eligible list.
This was done under the provision of the law which permits going outside the department under unusual circumstances. Such a condition prevailed here, they held, with the reorganization of the department following Lengel's removal and his conviction for murder along with former Detective Floyd Steitenberger.

BOOTLEGGING IS PROFITABLE
It has probably occurred by this time, to United States Commissioner Manley that wholesale operations in bootleg liquor are very profitable, and that those who engineer them can well afford to pay trifling fines for immunity. To the owners of a $2,000,000 cargo of smuggled rum the $7,500 forfeited by the bondsman for 15 members of the crew of the rum-runner Bulko, who had been arrested and were released on bail in that amount by the Commissioner, is a bagatelle. There are so many things the matter with prohibition enforcement that this matter of releasing grave offenders on nominal bail, with natural consequence of their disappearance and the probable collapse of the prosecution against the principals, will probably pass almost unnoticed. True, United States District Attorney Coles noticed it; but how much attention will it attract in Washington.—Philadelphia Record.

TO PROBE OATH
Washington.—(UP.)—Secretary of Labor Davis revealed he had ordered an investigation of Fascisti activities including a "blood oath" alleged taken by members of the Fascisti League of North America. He said he would uphold J. R. Thomas, Baltimore naturalization examiner in refusing to approve citizenship applications of 23 Italians until the oath they were asked to take in the league was investigated.
This oath is reported to be: "I swear to put into execution without discussing them, the orders of the Duce, and to serve with all my power and if necessary with my blood, the cause of the Fascisti (in this case only) revolution."

Northern Superstition
Elf was the wicked magician of Northern folklore, squat of figure, ugly of feature, and with long-matted hair. The elves were supposed to wound cattle and men with their elf-arrows—stone arrow heads—and children were removed from their cradles and replaced by imbecile elf-children.

Fear Spread by Eclipse
Before their nature was fully understood eclipses were regarded with superstitious dread, and many legends of dreadful occurrences are connected with this wonderful spectacle. In some parts of New Guinea they are regarded as portents of good seasons or success in battle, while in the Solomon Islands eclipses are credited to the machinations of sorcerers.

HUSBAND JUST A BEGGARLillie Tsavalas Says James Won Her
by Saying He Was a "Big Candy Man."New York.—The marriage of James Tsavalas, who induced a Brooklyn girl to become his wife by boasting of being a "big candy man" in Detroit, was annulled recently by Supreme Court Justice Charles J. Dru-han in Brooklyn, in a suit brought by Mrs. Lillie Perma Tsavalas of 260 Ovington avenue, Brooklyn, who charged that her husband had fraudulently represented himself to obtain her consent to wed.In 1922, according to her testimony, Tsavalas was a guest at a party in Brooklyn, at which she also was a guest, and he made use of that introduction to visit her at her home and to propose marriage.She withheld her acceptance of his offer until he had made four visits and described his chocolate and candy works. They were married in the Municipal building, Brooklyn.Mrs. Tsavalas told her husband that she would like to see his business place and she suggested that they should conclude their honeymoon in Detroit. When they arrived, she said, he took her to furnished lodgings. This puzzled her, but not quite so much as did the mysterious absence of her husband during certain hours daily. A remark about her husband's business several days later brought a quick response from the landlady, who said:"You want to see your husband's business? Then come with me." The landlady escorted the bride to a busy street in Detroit and stopped near a man pounding the sidewalk with a cane, his eyes concealed by "smoked" glasses. A sign proclaimed that he was blind. "That's your husband," the woman said.Mrs. Tsavalas was unable to believe what the woman had told her. She returned to the house and telegraphed for her mother, Mrs. Ellen Perma. When she arrived, mother and daughter again sought the supposed "blind man." When the beggar approached, Mrs. Perma stepped forward and pulled the glasses from his eyes, and Mrs. Tsavalas recognized her husband. He offered no defense to the suit.SOCIAL CALENDAR FAYETTE CO.

meet again in the near future.Amid appropriate settings the Von Bora society of Trinity Lutheran parish entertained in the church parlor Wednesday evening, September 28, to a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Evangeline
Troutman, whose marriage to Rev.
George Schuster will be solemnized
Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Trinity Lutheran church. The church parlor was decorated with yellow and white with goldenrod and marigolds in fall baskets. Long tables were arranged on both sides of the room with an umbrella suspended over each table. The chairs were draped in white and yellow with huge baskets of goldenrod placed beside the tables. All the Von Bora girls marched in and were seated in a semi-circle on the west side. Following came the bride-elect and two little flower girls, Norma Jean Wolf and Edna Mae Henn, dressed in costumes of yellow and white carrying little yellow umbrellas and large baskets of gifts. A lunch was served by Mrs. James Stout, Mrs. Helen Wolf and Mrs. John Seall. The committee is very grateful to all who so graciously assisted them in every way. All departed wishing Evangeline many years of happiness.HAD GOOD ENOUGH REASON FOR SABLEMrs. Charles P. Taft, who with her husband, has founded the magnificent Cincinnati Institute of Fine Arts, condemned at a dinner party the costliness of modern fashions."They get more costly every year," she said. "A woman used to buy leather shoes with real soles, shoes that could be walked in; but she buys now, for $40 or $50, sandals of lizard skin and cloth of gold that would go to pieces on her if she walked a mile."I heard a story the other day that shows up modern fashions beautifully.
A millionaire's wife came down to dinner in one of her new summer gowns —a diaphanous thing bordered with sable."How do you like this gown?" she asked her husband."Fine," he answered, as he wiped his wet forehead, for the evening was warm; but I don't quite see what purpose the sable serves."She laughed complacently.
"It serves the purpose," she answered, "of showing that we can afford it."Our Southern NeighborMexico is 1,900 miles long from

Sister Strangely Found

Issack Baskowitz's eyes were attracted to the likeness of a pretty girl on a calendar in a Dallas (Texas) office. He was amazed at the resemblance to a younger sister from whom he was separated in Russia ten years ago. Baskowitz communicated with the lithographer of the calendar and learned that the subject was none other than his sister Gertrude, who is now eighteen years old. He left for New York for a reunion with the girl.

BLACKSTONE.

The assertion is made that since Noah came out of the ark, never have so many and mysterious things been presented in a single performance as Blackstone, the famous magician will offer his patrons when he appears at the Grand theater three nights for his engagement which will begin Monday, October 3, with Wednesday matinee.

There isn't a dull moment in the entire entertainment, and the mysteries not only astonish and bewilder, but they enthrall as well, for the charm of newness applies to the entire program. Blackstone's new production is so new, so big, so compelling, that you cannot possibly conceive it in advance. The most wonderful show on tour, and it will sweep you off your feet and transport you to a land you didn't know existed.

On this tour, Blackstone is presenting the biggest and most entertaining program of mysteries that he has as yet presented and among them will be the big "Oriental Spectacle," "Oriental Nights" with the vanishing horse, "The Radio Girl" "The Birth of Fashion," "The Map of Europe," "Duck Inn" "The Disappearing Canary," "Where do Ducks go," "The Dancing Handkerchief," "Alice in Wonderland," "Spookland," and many other new and mystifying numbers.

Twenty people make up the personnel of Blackstone's company, in which many pretty girls are included and a seventy foot baggage car is necessary for the transportation of the huge array of paraphernalia, animals, effects and scenery.

AMUSEMENTS

Marion Davies' best work in pictures is very hard to stop because she has done so much of it.

There were places in "Zander the Great," "Beverly of Graustark," "When Knighthood Was in Flower," and "Little Old New York" which stamped her as the greatest romantic comedienne of the screen.

It is probably safe to say, however, that Miss Davies gives her very best work to date in her latest Cosmopolitan starring vehicle "Tillie the Toiler," now playing at the Met theater, and directed by Hobart Henley at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio.

Delightful as is Russ Westover's stenographer-heroine in his daily comic strip, in her interpretation of the role of Tillie, is even more delightful.

Has Farce and Pathos.

The screen play, by A. P. Younger, is based on the comic strip and is a breezy comedy drama, with many touches of farce. At the same time it has its moments of pathos.

In making this picture one of the notable comedies of the year the fair Marion has been assisted by a notable cast of comedians.

There is Watt Moore in the role of Mac, the whimsical office drudge, and there is Gertrude Short as Bubbles, the stenographer in the office next door. Matt Moore has played leads opposite Miss Davies on numerous other occasions and the two are perfect foils.

Moore is nearly always to be counted on to present a good accounting of himself. His many years of experience on the screen have given him a knowledge of the silver sheet's technique, which few actors possess.

George K. Arthur gives his usual good performance as Mr. Whipple, and that lovable character artist, Claire McDowell, makes a wonderful Ma Jones. Bert Roach, George Fawcett and Harry Crocker, a new comer to the screen (and a good one to keep an eye upon), handle their parts with commendable ability.

Sliding Doors Coming

Back in Paris Homes

Paris.—Sliding doors have been built throughout in a dozen modern homes by a Parisian architect. His view is that the hinged door is an antiquated waster of space. This view has found a good deal of support.

Those commenting on the idea express surprise that people never have rebelled against the swinging door.

"How ridiculous it is," says one, "to have to step backward to open or close a door!"

The old-fashioned door destroys the harmony of a room if left open at right angles to the wall, says another, and it is ugly and kills good wall space if it is swung back against the wall."

HOME BREWING
Regarded As Hard Liquor By Dry Chief, He Says.
Washington, Sept. 27.—(UP.)—Home-brew is liquor, as far as Federal Prohibition officials are concerned.
Prohibition Commissioner J. M. Doran said today home made beer falls in the same category as gin, whisky, rum, bourbon and other hard drinks and that its manufacture is illegal.
In the opinion of dry authorities there is no private brew made within the legal one-half of one per cent alcohol requirement.
Manufacture of home-brew is illegal without a permit and the government, will not issue a permit for home-brew manufacturing.
"Every man's home is his castle," he said. "Prohibition agents have been warned not to enter private dwellings without search-warrants and it is difficult to obtain such writs without evidence of sale of large quantity production ostensibly for bootlegging."

GOLF
Golf is a science—the study of a lifetime—in which you may exhaust yourself, but never your subject.
It is a combat, a duel or a melee, calling for courage, skill, and self control.
It is a test of temper, a trial of honor, a revealer of character.
It affords a chance to play the man, and act the gentleman.
It means getting into God's out-of-doors, getting close to nature, fresh air, exercise, a sweeping away of mental cobwebs, genuine recreation of the tired tissues.
It is a cure for care—an antidote to worry.
It includes companionship with friends, social intercourse, opportunity for courtesy, kindness and generosity to an opponent.

Thinking Hurts
Thinking is the hardest thing we do. Few can stand it, that's why there are more lazy minds than lazy muscles. George Barton Cutton, president of Colgate university, tells us not to worry because people don't think much. It's the newest and most difficult of arts. Nobody can keep it up very long. It hurts. We have to be patient with everybody—including ourselves.—Capper's Weekly.

Lesson for October 2

ELIJAH ON MOUNT CARMEL

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Choose you this day whom ye will serve.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God Hears Elijah's Prayer.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Standing Alone for God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Standing for God Against the Crowd.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Courage of Conviction.

I. Elijah's Message to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).

When Jezebel became the wife of King Ahab, she waged a savage warfare against God's prophets, killing all she could find, and thus seeking to abolish the true religion and set up idolatry instead. Elijah suddenly appeared, announcing the suspension of moisture (I Kings 17:1) as a judgment upon the people for their idolatry. He sounded three striking notes in his message:

1. "As the Lord God of Israel liveth." He knew that he represented the living God, therefore did not fear to come into the presence of the king.

2. "Before whom I stand." His standing before God indicated his constant readiness to go on His errands.

3. "There shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word." This suspension of moisture continued for three and a half years, and rain came in answer to Elijah's prayer (Jas. 5:17).

II. A Challenge to Baal Worship (I Kings 18:17-40).

As soon as Elijah had delivered his message concerning the drought, he retired from the king's sight.

1. Elijah shows himself to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).

(1) Ahab's question (v. 17). His aim in this question was no doubt to intimidate Elijah.

(2) Elijah's answer (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the calamity which had befallen the nation was caused by the idolatry of Ahab and his family.

2. The bold challenge (vv. 19-24).

(1) The people assemble (vv. 19, 20). At the urgent request of Elijah the king convened the people.

(2) The ringing call to decision (vv. 21-24). a. The question asked (v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal. b. The silence of the people (v. 21). This may have been because of fear of the king or ignorance, for many were of the opinion that to be religious was the only thing necessary, irrespective of the being worshiped. c. The method of decision (vv. 22-24). Two sacrifices were to be provided, one to be offered to Baal, the other to God.

3. The test applied (vv. 25-39).

(1) Offering by the prophets of Baal (vv. 25-29). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity to prove whether Baal was a real God.

(2) The Offering by Elijah (vv. 30-39). a. The people invited near (v. 30). His object in inviting the people was to see clearly in order that they might grasp the genuineness of the test.

b. The altar repaired (vv. 30-32). Elijah took twelve stones, representing the united nation. c. The offering on the altar (vv. 33-35). After the bullock was in place he had four barrels of water three times emptied upon the sacrifice and the wood so as to fill the trench about the altar. So sure was Elijah that God's power was sufficient that he heaped difficulty upon difficulty. d. Elijah's prayer (vv. 36, 37). This was a model prayer. (a) It was based upon covenants (v. 36). All real prayer rests upon covenant relationships.

(b) Its object was God's exaltation (v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory, but the only thing that he asked for himself was to be known as God's servant. (c) It was for the salvation of the people (v. 37). e. The result (vv. 38, 39). (a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed, not only the sacrifice, but the wood, stones and dust, even licking up the water in the trenches. (b) The people fell on their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.

4. The execution of Baal's prophets (v. 40). Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their king. Idolatry was treason against the King. These false prophets were traitors to God and therefore should die.

5. Elijah vindicated (vv. 41-46). The proof that Elijah was God's prophet was incomplete until rain came.

III. Elijah Taken Up Into Heaven (II Kings 2:1-15).

Not only was the prophet vindicated in that the offering was consumed and rain came, but God took him to Himself when his work was done.

IV. Faith of Our Fathers

"The church should be kept the source of spiritual life and power. Never before did the world so need emphasis upon the 'faith of our fathers living still.'"—Rev. B. Allen Reed.

V. Saved From Doubt

At last Thomas was saved from doubt. What saved him? Love for Christ. He had anchored his soul to the Nazarene with a mighty and abiding love.—Vance.

RED SQUIRRELS ARE MENACE TO BIRD LIFE

A recent ruling of the Attorney-General to the effect that it is legal to shoot red squirrels at any time of the year is hailed with enthusiasm by friends of bird life. The reason is said to be that red squirrels are the most potent destroyers of bird life, taking great delight in sucking eggs and in destroying the young. Hunters also say that they have habits that are extremely unsocial toward fox squirrels and gray squirrels, practices that tend to reduce the fox squirrel and gray squirrel population. While the news of the ruling has been disseminated widely, one hears very little of hunting accidents and it must be assumed that the gun bearers have not been lured to the woods by the intelligence that legal game is there.

Inferiority Complex

Inferiority lies at the root of envy. It is the spirit's unwilling acknowledgment of inability to achieve as much as another.—Erichson.

The Old Umbrella Mender

By AD SCHUSTER

(Copyright.)

AS A rule the stranger stopped to look at old Mackinson, umbrella mender, for he was a man of strange contrasts, a figure out of the old paintings of patriarchs. Mackinson's hair and beard were white and his eyes a guileless blue. His tattered and even disreputable clothes would have given him an evil appearance were it not for the noble carriage of head and childlike gaze. Mackinson mended umbrellas and, when he had the time, sketched upon scraps of paper with a stub of a pencil. He was quite certain that he was a great artist.

Those who stopped to look over his shoulder when he was drawing smiled to see such scribbles as might have been made by a child of eight.

"I never had the chance to take lessons," the old man would say, "and never had the time to develop my talent. But now, with this umbrella business to keep me going, I am getting my hand in." Then he would concentrate heavily while the pencil added to the effects of his picture and say, "Do you know, I wouldn't be surprised if I found a market for this."

Mackinson's stand was in a side street and across from the office of a wholesale concern. He had drawn every building in sight and so welcomed any new subject that came within his range. One afternoon his pencil was busy with a large automobile which had stopped near the wholesale house. It was built for speed and luxury, and the old man forgot the umbrella business, his need for money, and the people who passed as he made a picture which, to him, was his masterpiece. He had all but finished when two men ran out of the office, leaped into the machine and drove off.

"Just my luck!" complained the artist, "now I have to finish it by memory."

But there was not time to finish. Things began to happen in the quiet street with a rapidity that was amazing. A patrol wagon clanged up, a crowd collected and there were policemen everywhere. To Mackinson it was bewildering. Instead of being curious he was frightened, like a child lost in a crowd on the street.

A police captain paused in front of the umbrella man, looked in a book, then made a motion.

"You will come with me," he said kindly. "We are going to take care of you, see that you get a comfortable place to live."

This was the law. He could trust the law. "But my business; I must keep on with my business."

"After a while. When it gets warmer again."

Mackinson was not to know that men thought him incapable of caring for himself, that the scrawls he called pictures and his destitute appearance had been responsible for reports which brought him to the station.

"I guess," said the captain, "they'll have to call him a vagabond and send him over for a while. Maybe there is some institution."

"When the weather gets warmer," said Mackinson in his cell, and he drew his paper from under his arm and started drawing. When they came to get him, that he might go before the judge, he was drawing an interior of the cell, but it was not this picture that drew the attention of the captain who, following the case with sympathy, had come for the man.

"When," he said, pointing to a drawing that had fallen on the floor, "did you make that?"

"I was doing it when all those policemen came and ran around and got me for doing nothing at all."

"And that automobile, was it the one which went away just before we came?"

Mackinson smiled. This captain had recognized it was an automobile he had drawn.

"The very one, just as it was there, only it went away before I could put the finishing touches."

"Listen," the captain was intensely interested, "that number there, are you sure it is the same as the one on the machine?"

"I am a real artist," said old man Mackinson, "and I never make mistakes."

It is a fact they caught the men who robbed the wholesale house from the odd drawing made by the umbrella mender. And Mackinson's reward was release from jail, release with a sum of money paid him by a man in a high hat.

"He isn't a vag now; he's got money," said the captain, "and I guess, anyway, he isn't doing anybody any harm."

Birds' Home a Mailbox

Daily deliveries of mail didn't keep a pair of bluebirds from choosing an R. F. D. box near Brooks, Maine, for their home. Of course, he tries not to disturb Mrs. Bluebird.—Capper's Weekly.

Cruelty to Patriots

PRIEST SLAIN AFTER BATTLE WITH TROOPS

Thirty Catholics Killed In Mexico--Federals Lose Three In Combat.

Thirty-four rebelling Catholics were killed and a Catholic priest, Father Sedano, was captured and summarily court-martialed and executed after two brisk combats with federal troops in the state of Jalisco, says a bulletin issued by the presidential bureau at Mexico City, Wednesday.

One corporal and two soldiers were killed and one officer and nine soldiers wounded.

The report of the affrays was received from Military Commandant Ferreirs.

The first fight took place at Los Mezquites, where 38 rebels, headed by Sedano and another chieftain named Placencia, were entrenched. This fight lasted four hours, and 14 rebels were killed and two captured and executed. The others fled, Sedano being taken by the troops and later shot.

The second engagement lasted three hours, after 250 rebels, commanded by Alberto Parajas, Francisco Losa, Florencio Zaragoza and Josus Nunez attacked federal troops under Colonel Ortiz Sevilla at Portezuelo. The rebels were dispersed and fled to the mountains, abandoning 18 dead and many wounded.

CELEBRATION AT LOGAN ELM PARK SUNDAY

Ohio History Day at Logan Elm park will attract a large crowd of people Sunday afternoon and a good program will be rendered beginning at two o'clock.

The headliner will be a full blooded Indian, Koo-tut-pah-he-too, which means in English "Peaceful Bear."

The invocation will be pronounced by Rev. Benjamin DeCamp, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church; salute to the flag by the audience, led by General George Florence; songs and music by the Laurelville band.

The Independent Order of Red Men will have an encampment in the park, and Mr. Cameron, one of their number will deliver the famous speech of Chief Logan.

Parking space will be provided at 25 cents an automobile. Entrance to the park is free. Come and bring the children.

OPENING OF RODEO SHOW BIG PROGRAM

Everything is in readiness at Mason's show grounds for the opening tonight of King Bros. Wild West rodeo, which is scheduled for a three days' stand in Circleville under the auspices of the Eagles. Tents, seats for three thousand people and an arena have been erected.

The arena in which the wild west events will be given is 100 feet wide and 250 feet long and will be brilliantly lighted by twelve 1000 W. T. electric lights.

King Bros. have 75 head of horses and 15 long horned Texas steers which will be used in the performance. There are twenty-five cowboys and cowgirls, hailing from eleven western and southwestern states. Colonel Jack King, in charge of the outfit, comes from the I. X. L. ranch at Henrietta, Texas, and is en route to Columbia, South Carolina, where he will furnish all the attractions for the state fair.

Tonight, as an added attraction, S. L. Heiter, of Circleville, who is employed by the Dominion Construction company, will attempt to ride the famous bucking horse "War Paint." Mr. Heiter was reared at Sun Dance, Wyoming, and is a personal friend of Juan Carruthers, a Cuban cowboy, who is with Colonel King.

OF OFFICE BY GRAND JURY IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS

Will Be Begun By the Prosecutor, Who Will Warm Up Things For Mr. Duvall Next Monday—In the Mean Time His Honor Is Sitting Tight and Tells the Powers That Be, To Crack Their Whip—How To Get Rid of His Wife In the Position She Holds, Is Undetermined

Impeachment of John L. Duvall, mayor of Indianapolis, by the Marion county grand jury, the same body that indicted him on charges of violation of the corrupt practice act, was forecast at Indianapolis, Indiana, Wednesday as a means of ousting the executive from his office following his conviction by a jury in Marion county criminal court.

William H. Remy, Marion county prosecutor, and his two assistants, John W. Holtzman and Emsley W. Johnson, are expected to confer with in the next day or two to consider such action.

From a source close to the prosecutor's office it is predicted that the mayor would be ousted within the next 30 days. The grand jury has the power to file the impeachment articles that would be tried in the criminal court, the same as a trial on any indictment. A verdict of guilty would mean immediate suspension from office, despite an appeal to the supreme court.

Should this action be taken the question arises as to whether or not Mrs. Maude E. Duvall, the mayor's wife, is eligible to succeed her husband in the mayor's office. The city is in a peculiar legal tangle, a question having been raised as to the legality of city bonds signed by the mayor following his disqualification by the Marion county jury.

Just now the eyes of Indiana and Indianapolis are fixed on the arraignment of a galaxy of state and city officials in Marion county criminal court Monday.

Indiana faces the spectacle of seeing Ed. Johnson, governor, and Duvall, mayor of the Capital City, arraigned in court with murders, robbers and other men charged with petty crime.

Along with the mayor and the governor are to be arraigned George V. Coffin, political boss and chairman of the city and county Republican committees in Indianapolis; Robert I. Marsh, former law partner of the governor and former chief counsel for the extension department of the klan; John J. Collins, city purchasing agent; W. C. Buser, brother-in-law of the mayor and former city controller and Earl Garrett, market mayor.

No appearance by any attorney for the governor, Robinson, Symmes & Melson, the law firm of which United States Senator Arthur R. Robinson is the head, denied they had been retained by the governor. Judge James A. Collins, Marion county criminal court, announced that he would disqualify himself as the trial judge in the Jackson case, because of his activities as a candidate at the last election.

Duvall is to be arraigned on both affidavits and an indictment and the governor, Coffin and Marsh on indictments charging conspiracy to commit a felony in attempting to bribe former Governor Warren T. McCray.

The Democratic state committee, which has kept complete silence during the months of the political corruption expose in Indiana, broke over the traces Wednesday when R. Earl Peters, of Ft. Wayne, Democratic state chairman, in a bitter arraignment, took Arthur R. Gilliom, Indiana attorney general, to task for statements the latter made in a speech at Terre Haute Tuesday night.

ARREST HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Mrs. Guilford Brown was placed under arrest this afternoon by the police department at her home on Pinkney street for obstruction, police in the discharge of their duties, and her husband was arrested for possession of intoxicating liquor. A gallon of liquor and a case of home brew were confiscated.

MAY RULE HUNGARY

There is said to be a deep-laid scheme to place the duke d'Aosta, cousin of the king of Italy and a favorite of Mussolini, on the vacant throne of Hungary. The plan is supposed to be backed by Great Britain and Italy, but probably would not please France.

Ship 500,000 Canaries

a Year From Germany

Berlin.—Germany, the world's market for canary birds, annually ships about 500,000 of the little feathered warblers to America.

Since the beginning of the Sixteenth century, when these songsters were brought from the Canary islands, they have been carefully and extensively bred in Germany. Within the last century, the "Harzer rollers" in the Harz mountains have acquired world-wide fame.

Through careful breeding the original green color of the birds has been changed to a bright yellow, while incessant and careful training has markedly enhanced their original marvelous vocal qualities.

The features of the canary-bird exhibitions regularly held in Berlin are the "song tournaments," at which the birds' vocal abilities are carefully appraised by expert breeders, who have made the surprising discovery that the green birds—resembling in color their wild tropical progenitors—are frequently better singers than their yellow brethren.

World Leisure Scen

"When Atom Is Split"

London.—In half a century or so hardly anyone will have any work to do, says Dr. Percy Buck, professor of music in the University of London.

"In 50 years from now every human being will have a vast amount of leisure on his hands," explained Doctor Buck to the university teachers attending the summer vacation lecture course.

"If once the atom is split—and that is bound to happen in a certain number of years—there will be no need for coal, gas, electric light, steam or anything else like that. Think of it! We will be able to run a train from London to Edinburgh for half a penny, and to light the whole of London for New York for less than one single penny."

Youngstown—Five cases of diphtheria in the first grade of Bancroft school, Brownlee Woods, has caused much concern among the parents and patrons of the school.

Dayton—Mrs. Charlotte Grice, 28, plead not guilty to a charge of murder last night and was ordered held for hearing Wednesday. She told police her husband, Raymond, 31, returned home intoxicated and attempted to strike her when she shot him.

Marion—No verdict was reached at the inquest conducted by a representative of the state fire marshal's office and County Coroner S. D. Osborn into the death of Saverio Canoro, 42, whose burned body was found on the porch of his wife's home.

Dayton—The county jail here was equipped today with two sub-machine guns, firing 45 caliber bullets at the rate of 960 per minute.

Cleveland—"Dr." Homer J. Thompson, in the county jail, entered his eighth day of his hunger strike. His rebellion against treatment he says accorded him in the jail.

Toledo—John Thomas, 31, charged with killing Frank Lofas, 30, proprietor of the Italian gardens yesterday morning was at liberty today after Coroner Charles J. Henzler returned a verdict of homicide.

Gallipolis—Anti-Saloon League representatives met today in the Baptist church to effect an organization for the support of the Marshall bill which would restore system of justice courts in Ohio.

FUNERAL OF MISS DUNKLE

RURAL MAIL CARRIER AND WAR VETERAN

Horatio A. Brown Joins the Silent Majority—Funeral
Monday, Oct. 3.

Death beckoned H. A. Brown, a Civil war veteran, at his home, 514 North Court street at 5:34 o'clock, Wednesday evening, September 28. He had been ill for the past six months of arthritis.

Horatio Alexander Brown was born in Roseville, Muskingum county March 18, 1848, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown.

He came to this county in 1872 and took a position with James Harsha, a monument dealer.

He married Miss Anna E. Delzell, June 28, 1876. His wife and one son and two daughters survive. They are Edward M. Brown, of Charleston West Virginia; Mrs. W. B. Gentry, of Providence, Rhode Island, and Mrs. J. W. Wilhelm, of Dayton. He also leaves two grandchildren, Florence and Harold Brown, of Charleston, West Virginia.

Of his immediate family, he leaves two brothers and one sister Howard Brown, of this city; Harry Brown, of Birmingham, Alabama; and Mrs. Sarah Oakley, of Logan.

Mr. Brown was a veteran of the Civil war, serving in the 151 and 191 regiments, O. V. I. Besides being a Civil war veteran, Mr. Brown was a veteran of the rural mail service. He was among the first rural mail carriers and made an efficient carrier. He had a sunny disposition and made friends easily and retained them. He was retired from the mail service on a pension seven years ago, after a faithful service of about twenty years.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church.

The funeral services will be held at his late home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Burial in Forest cemetery. Rural mail carriers will act as pallbearers.

Preceded the Umbrella

Before the umbrella came there was what was known as the quitasol—a parasol of oiled muslin, whose material was imported from India via England. The quitasol was a feminine monopoly. The man wore a "roque-laure," or cape of oiled muslin. The first umbrella was fashioned of this material and had ribs of rattan.

A CHARIVARI

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott J. Howard, the recently wedded couple gave them a belling at their home on Hanford street, Columbus, Tuesday evening. Those in the party from this city were; Mrs. John L. Howard and daughter, Miss Mary, Mrs. John Drum and daughter, Miss Elizabeth and son, Thomas Drum, Miss Alma Glick, Miss Leola Warner, Miss Catharine Riley, Joseph Good, Miss Rose Good and Miss Adah Howard. The young couple enjoyed the surprise and invited their guests to refreshments.

NEW BUSINESS FIRM.

L. M. Salter has leased the Lyman Bell garage, 146 West Main street, and will open a sales and service shop for the handling of the Oakland and Pontiac cars. Mr. Salter has recently been connected with the Circleville Motors company and knows the game from A to Z.

Both of the above named cars are not new in the market. They are both standard machines and are very popular.

The location for a new car agency is most excellent. The place has been overhauled and repainted and presents a bright appearance.

The name of the new firm will be the L. M. Salter Motors company.

KINDERGRATEN

Mrs. Tom Renick wishes to announce that she expects to open a kindergarten in this city not later than October 10, for children from three to six years of age. Anyone interested or desiring further information may call Mrs. Renick at 1440 as it may be impossible for her to see everyone, personally.

VETERANS OF CIVIL WAR RETURN FLAG

Boys In Blue Meet Boys In Gray and Surrender Banner Taken 63 Years Ago

Another epic in the swiftly closing annals of the Blue and Gray was witnessed at Marianna, Florida, when federal veterans from Ohio returned to survivors of a Florida confederate brigade a tattered flag wrested at the battle of Franklin, Tennessee, November 3, 1864.

Gnarled hands gave and received the banner, while voices, broken by the 63 years which have intervened, spoke only praise for the former foe.

The flag, torn by shot and shell, was formally presented by Colonel W. W. Alcorn, Toledo, Ohio, who with Comrades Eli Bourdo and Judge E. D. Potter, are three of the six survivors of the old Fourteenth Ohio Infantry which fought at Franklin and followed Sherman on his historic march thru Georgia.

"Florida need feel no shame in the loss of the battle banner at Franklin," said Colonel Alcorn. "It was taken behind our own entrenchments and it took a courageous group of fighting men to ever get there."

"You had us licked at Franklin, but fortunately for us your command apparently failed to realize at the crucial moment just now completely you had us encompassed."

Turning them to the torn flag, the aged federal veteran reverently said: "The flag itself has been bathed in the blood both of the north and the south. Because it was taken within our lines, behind our own breastworks, we had prized its possession highly. However, our pleasure in returning it to the men whose courage we had cause to admire and incidentally, were forced to respect, is greater than our pride in its possession."

The presentation exercises climaxed the annual reunion of Florida confederate veterans. Never before had a federal soldier been so welcomed at a Florida reunion and never had a Union veteran ridden at the head of the parade before.

"Yankee Doodle" was played and applauded at the concerts and took its place alongside "Dixie" the stirring martial air of the Southland.

A reception honoring the Ohio veterans, who represented the Toledo Memorial association, followed the flag presentation.

CANTON CHIEF
Hexamer, Active in Mellet Case, Succeeds John Wise.

Canton, O., Sept. 27.—(UP.)—Earl W. Hexamer, former safety Director and acting chief of police, who was partly responsible for the success of the Mellett murder investigation in co-operation with Detective Ora Slater, was today appointed chief of police of Canton, succeeding the late John F. Wise, killed in an automobile accident last week.
Hexamer was named acting chief at the time Seranus A. Lengel was removed. The appointment was made by the Civil Service Commission and Mayor S. M. Swartz, who set aside the existing eligible list.
This was done under the provision of the law which permits going outside the department under usual circumstances. Such a condition prevailed here, they held, with the reorganization of the department following Lengel's removal and his conviction for murder along with former Detective Floyd Steitenberger.

BOOTLEGGING IS PROFITABLE

It has probably occurred by this time, to United States Commissioner Manley that wholesale operations in bootleg liquor are very profitable, and that those who engineer them can well afford to pay trifling fines for immunity. To the owners of a $2,000,000 cargo of smuggled rum the $7,500 forfeited by the bondsman for 15 members of the crew of the rum-runner Bulko, who had been arrested and were released on bail in that amount by the Commissioner, is a bagatelle. There are so many things the matter with prohibition enforcement that this matter of releasing grave offenders on nominal bail, with natural consequence of their disappearance and the probable collapse of the prosecution against the principals, will probably pass almost unnoticed. True, United States District Attorney Coles noticed it; but how much attention will it attract in Washington.—Philadelphia Record.

TO PROBE OATH

Washington.—(UP.)—Secretary of Labor Davis revealed he had ordered an investigation of Fascisti activities including a "blood oath" alleged taken by members of the Fascisti League of North America. He said he would uphold J. R. Thomas, Baltimore naturalization examiner in refusing to approve citizenship applications of 23 Italians until the oath they were asked to take in the league was investigated.
This oath is reported to be:
"I swear to put into execution without discussing them, the orders of the Duce, and to serve with all my power and if necessary with my blood, the cause of the Fascisti (in this case only) revolution."

Fear Spread by Eclipse
Before their nature was fully understood eclipses were regarded with superstitious dread, and many legends of dreadful occurrences are connected with this wonderful spectacle. In some parts of New Guinea they are regarded as portents of good seasons or success in battle, while in the Solomon Islands eclipses are credited to the machinations of sorcerers.

CORN CROPS ARE INJURED

Misses Sadie Brunner and Grace Moodie entertained today to a dinner bridge.

The following guests gathered at the home of Mrs. Ella Shell at South Perry, Sunday, September 25: Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Kuhn and son, Eugene. Flora McDonald, Henry P. Bowers, Mary Taggart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shell and son, Charles Jr., of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Ingman and children Lyle, Glenn and Wanda Dee, Misses Edna and Nellie Ingman and Aja Shell of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. Susanna Cryder, of Hallsville; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cryder and sons, Wayne and Glenn of Adelphi; Miss Effie Cave of South Perry and the hostess, Mrs. Ella Shell. All came with well filled baskets and at the noon hour a bountiful dinner was served. All left at a late hour in the evening, hoping to meet again in the near future.

Amid appropriate settings the Von Bora society of Trinity Lutheran church entertained in the church parlor Wednesday evening, September 28, to a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Evangeline Troutman, whose marriage to Rev. George Schuster will be solemnized Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Trinity Lutheran church. The church parlor was decorated thruout in yellow and white with goldenrod and marigolds in fall baskets. Long tables were arranged on both sides of the room with an umbrella suspended over each table. The chairs were draped in white and yellow with huge baskets of goldenrod placed beside the tables. All the Von Bora girls marched in and were seated in a semi-circle on the west side. Following came the bride-elect and two little flower girls, Norma Jean Wolf and Edna Mae Henn, dressed in costumes of yellow and white carrying little yellow umbrellas and large baskets of gifts. A lunch was served by Mrs. James Stout, Mrs. Helen Wolf and Mrs. John Seall. The committee is very grateful to all who so graciously assisted them in every way. All departed wishing Evangeline many years of happiness.

HAD GOOD ENOUGH REASON FOR SABLE

Mrs. Charles P. Taft, who with her husband, has founded the magnificent Cincinnati Institute of Fine Arts, condemned at a dinner party the costliness of modern fashions.

"They get more costly every year," she said. "A woman used to buy leather shoes with real soles, shoes that could be walked in; but she buys now, for $40 or $50, sandals of lizard skin and cloth of gold that would go to pieces on her if she walked a mile."

"I heard a story the other day that shows up modern fashions beautifully. A millionaire's wife came down to dinner in one of her new summer gowns—a diaphanous thing bordered with sable."

"How do you like this gown?" she asked her husband.

"Fine," he answered, as he wiped his wet forehead, for the evening was warm; "but I don't quite see what purpose the sable serves."

She laughed complacently.

"It serves the purpose," she answered, "of showing that we can afford it."

Corn Cutting Is Now Under Way--Frost Did Considerable Damage.

Estimates of the corn crop in Fayette county place it around 75 per cent, although some men in touch with conditions believe this will be a little too high.

The men who have examined the corn closely declare that a great many ears are found which have not filled properly so that their appearance is deceptive.

Damage by the frosts last week is much heavier than at first announced hundreds of acres being badly damaged by the freeze which struck particularly hard in the low ground.

Corn cutting in Fayette county is now under way in real earnest.

Wealthy Canadians

Canada's national wealth is officially estimated at $22,000,000,000, which works out on the average at $5,525 per person. This is apart from undeveloped natural resources.

It is estimated that national wealth at the time of confederation was less than $1,500,000,000, so that it has multiplied about 14 times since Canada became a dominion. Agricultural values make up about $8,000,000,000 of the present total, urban real estate nearly $6,000,000,000 and the railways considerably more than $2,000,000,000. Ontario owns about one-third, Quebec one-quarter, and Saskatchewan, one-eighth.

Sister Strangely Found
Issack Baskowitz's eyes were attracted to the likeness of a pretty girl on a calendar in a Dallas (Texas) office. He was amazed at the resemblance to a younger sister from whom he was separated in Russia ten years ago. Baskowitz communicated with the lithographer of the calendar and learned that the subject was none other than his sister Gertrude, who is now eighteen years old. He left for New York for a reunion with the girl.

BLACKSTONE.
The assertion is made that since Noah came out of the ark, never have so many and mysterious things been presented in a single performance as Blackstone, the famous magician will offer his patrons when he appears at the Grand theater three nights for his engagement which will begin Monday, October 3, with Wednesday matinee.
There isn't a dull moment in the entire entertainment, and the mysteries not only astonish and bewilder, but they enthrall as well, for the charm of newness applies to the entire program. Blackstone's new production is so new, so big, so compelling, that you cannot possibly conceive it in advance. The most wonderful show on tour, and it will sweep you off your feet and transport you to a land you didn't know existed.
On this tour, Blackstone is presenting the biggest and most entertaining program of mysteries that he has as yet presented and among them will be the big "Oriental spectacle," "Oriental Nights" with the vanishing horse, "The Radio Girl" "The Birth of Fashion," "The Map of Europe," "Duck Inn" "The Disappearing Canary," "Where do Ducks go," "The Dancing Handkerchief," "Alice in Wonderland," "Spookland," and many other new and mystifying numbers.
Twenty people make up the personnel of Blackstone's company, in which many pretty girls are included and a seventy foot baggage car is necessary for the transportation of the huge array of paraphernalia, animals, effects and scenery.

AMUSEMENTS

Marion Davies' best work in pictures is very hard to stop because she has done so much of it.
There were places in "Zander the Great," "Beverly of Graustark," "When Knighthood Was in Flower," and "Little Old New York" which stamped her as the greatest romantic comedienne of the screen.
It is probably safe to say, however, that Miss Davies gives her very best work to date in her latest Cosmopolitan starring vehicle "Tillie the Toiler," now playing at the Met theater, and directed by Hobart Henley at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio.
Delightful as is Russ Westover's stenographer-heroine in his daily comic strip, in her interpretation of the role of Tillie, is even more delightful.
Has Farce and Pathos.
The screen play, by A. P. Younger, is based on the comic strip and is a breezy comedy drama, with many touches of farce. At the same time it has its moments of pathos.
In making this picture one of the notable comedies of the year the fair Marion has been assisted by a notable cast of comedians.
There is Watt Moore in the role of Mac, the whimsical office drudge, and there is Gertrude Short as Bubbles, the stenographer in the office next door. Matt Moore has played leads opposite Miss Davies on numerous other occasions and the two are perfect foils.
Moore is nearly always to be counted on to present a good accounting of himself. His many years of experience on the screen have given him a knowledge of the silver sheet's technique, which few actors possess.
George K. Arthur gives his usual good performance as Mr. Whipple, and that lovable character artist, Claire McDowell, makes a wonderful Ma Jones. Bert Roach, George Fawcett and Harry Crocker, a newcomer to the screen (and a good one to keep an eye upon), handle their parts with commendable ability.

Sliding Doors Coming

Back in Paris Homes

Paris.—Sliding doors have been built throughout in a dozen modern homes by a Parisian architect. His view is that the hinged door is an antiquated waster of space. This view has found a good deal of support.
Those commenting on the idea express surprise that people never have rebelled against the swinging door.
"How ridiculous it is," says one, "to have to step backward to open or close a door!"
The old-fashioned door destroys the harmony of a room if left open at right angles to the wall, says another, and it is ugly and kills good wall space, if it is swung back against the wall."

HOME BREWING

Regarded As Hard Liquor By Dry Chief, He Says.

Washington, Sept. 27.—(UP.)—Home-brew is liquor, as far as Federal Prohibition officials are concerned.

Prohibition Commissioner J. M. Doran said today home made beer falls in the same category as gin, whisky, rum, bourbon and other hard drinks and that its manufacture is illegal.

In the opinion of dry authorities there is no private brew made within the legal one-half of one per cent alcohol requirement.

Manufacture of home-brew is illegal without a permit and the government, will not issue a permit for home-brew manufacturing.

"Every man's home is his castle," he said. "Prohibition agents have been warned not to enter private dwellings without search-warrants and it is difficult to obtain such writs without evidence of sale of large quantity production ostensibly for bootlegging."

GOLF

Golf is a science—the study of a lifetime—in which you may exhaust yourself, but never your subject.

It is a combat, a duel or a melee, calling for courage, skill, and self control.

It is a test of temper, a trial of honor, a revealer of character.

It affords a chance to play the man, and act the gentleman.

It means getting into God's out-of-doors, getting close to nature, fresh air, exercise, a sweeping away of mental cobwebs, genuine recreation of the tired tissues.

It is a cure for care—an antidote to worry.

It includes companionship with friends, social intercourse, opportunity for courtesy, kindness and generosity to an opponent.

Thinking Hurts

Thinking is the hardest thing we do. Few can stand it, that's why there are more lazy minds than lazy muscled. George Barton Cutton, president of Colgate university, tells us not to worry because people don't think much. It's the newest and most difficult of arts. Nobody can keep it up very long. It hurts. We have to be patient with everybody—including ourselves.—Capper's Weekly.

He Chases the Crow

Perched on an outstanding dead limb near his nest site, prepared for passing insects, is Sir Kingbird, one of the most common of our large flycatchers, says Nature Magazine. His range extends from central Canada through all parts of the United States except the Southwest. The male bird's pet aversion is the crow, which he will chase from the premises, even inflicting severe punishment with his strong bill.

Lesson for October 2

ELIJAH ON MOUNT CARMEL

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Choose you this day whom ye will serve.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God Hears Elijah's Prayer.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Standing Alone for God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Standing for God Against the Crowd.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Courage of Conviction.

I. Elijah's Message to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).

When Jezebel became the wife of King Ahab, she waged a savage warfare against God's prophets, killing all she could find, and thus seeking to abolish the true religion and set up idolatry instead. Elijah suddenly appeared, announcing the suspension of moisture (I Kings 17:1) as a judgment upon the people for their idolatry. He sounded three striking notes in his message:

1. "As the Lord God of Israel liveth." He knew that he represented the living God, therefore did not fear to come into the presence of the king.

2. "Before whom I stand." His standing before God indicated his constant readiness to go on His errands.

3. "There shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word." This suspension of moisture continued for three and a half years, and rain came in answer to Elijah's prayer (Jas. 5:17).

II. A Challenge to Baal Worship (I Kings 18:17-46).

As soon as Elijah had delivered his message concerning the drought, he retired from the king's sight.

1. Elijah shows himself to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).

(1) Ahab's question (v. 17). His aim in this question was no doubt to intimidate Elijah.

(2) Elijah's answer (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the calamity which had befallen the nation was caused by the idolatry of Ahab and his family.

2. The bold challenge (vv. 19-24).

(1) The people assemble (vv. 19, 20). At the urgent request of Elijah the king convened the people.

(2) The ringing call to decision (vv. 21-24). a. The question asked (v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal. b. The silence of the people (v. 21). This may have been because of fear of the king or ignorance, for many were of the opinion that to be religious was the only thing necessary, irrespective of the being worshiped. c. The method of decision (vv. 22-24). Two sacrifices were to be provided, one to be offered to Baal, the other to God.

3. The test applied (vv. 25-39).

(1) Offering by the prophets of Baal (vv. 25-29). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity to prove whether Baal was a real God.

(2) The Offering by Elijah (vv. 30-39). a. The people invited near (v. 30). His object in inviting the people was to see clearly in order that they might grasp the genuineness of the test. b. The altar repaired (vv. 30-32). Elijah took twelve stones, representing the united nation. c. The offering on the altar (vv. 33-35). After the bullock was in place he had four barrels of water three times emptied upon the sacrifice and the wood so as to fill the trench about the altar. So sure was Elijah that God's power was sufficient that he heaped difficulty upon difficulty. d. Elijah's prayer (vv. 36, 37). This was a model prayer. (a) It was based upon covenants (v. 36). All real prayer rests upon covenant relationships. (b) Its object was God's exaltation (v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory, but the only thing that he asked for himself was to be known as God's servant. (c) It was for the salvation of the people (v. 37). e. The result (vv. 38, 39). (a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed, not only the sacrifice, but the wood, stones and dust, even licking up the water in the trenches. (b) The people fell on their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.

4. The execution of Baal's prophets (v. 40). Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their king. Idolatry was treason against the King. These false prophets were traitors to God and therefore should die.

5. Elijah vindicated (vv. 41-46). The proof that Elijah was God's prophet was incomplete until rain came.

III. Elijah Taken Up Into Heaven (II Kings 2:1-15).

Not only was the prophet vindicated in that the offering was consumed and rain came, but God took him to Himself when his work was done.

RED SQUIRRELS ARE MENACE TO BIRD LIFE

A recent ruling of the Attorney-General to the effect that it is legal to shoot red squirrels at any time of the year is hailed with enthusiasm by friends of bird life. The reason is said to be that red squirrels are the most potent destroyers of bird life, taking great delight in sucking eggs and in destroying the young. Hunters also say that they have habits that are extremely unsocial toward fox squirrels and gray squirrels, practices that tend to reduce the fox squirrel and gray squirrel population. While the news of the ruling has been disseminated widely, one hears very little of hunting accidents and it must be assumed that the gun bearers have not been lured to the woods by the intelligence that legal game is there.

Heatrola is more than a heating plant that looks like a phonograph

It is the heating plant—and the only heating plant in the world—that has the Intensi-fire Air Duct—the device that extracts every particle of heat from any kind of fuel. The feature that practically doubles the heating capacity of the Heatrola without using a single extra pound of fuel.

There is only one Heatrola

Estate Builds It

WE SELL IT!

Five years ago an entirely new and revolutionary idea in home heating, the Heatrola created a sensation. In the glory of a new principle, it stood alone.

Today, with all its important new features protected by the United States Government, Heatrola still stands alone.

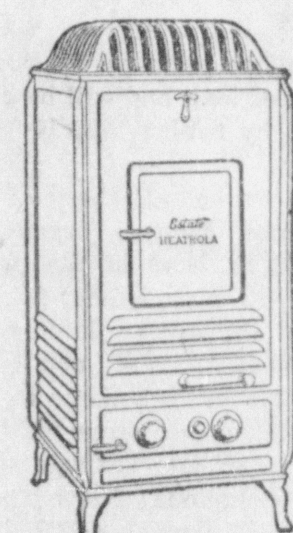

Since its introduction, tens of thousands of Heatrolas have been installed in American homes—here and everywhere.

Our Heatrola Experience is worth something to you

We can tell you just what you can expect from the Heatrola in heating your home. A man who knows will inspect your house without obligation to you. Come in and ask for a Heatrola demonstration.

Convenient Payment Plan

A small amount down and easy monthly payments puts the Heatrola to work heating your home. Come in and find out the details.

Queer Time Measurement

In the mountains of Montenegro, distance is often measured by the time it takes to smoke a cigarette. They are moderate and presume that a normal cigarette smoker lights one every half hour or so. Consequently, a cigarette's walk would be from one and a half to two miles.

The Old Umbrella Mender

By AD SCHUSTER

(Copyright.)

AS a rule the stranger stopped to look at old Mackinson, umbrella mender, for he was a man of strange contrasts, a figure out of the old paintings of patriarchs. Mackinson's hair and beard were white and his eyes a guileless blue. His tattered and even disreputable clothes would have given him an evil appearance were it not for the noble carriage of head and childlike gaze. Mackinson mended umbrellas and, when he had the time, sketched upon scraps of paper with a stub of a pencil. He was quite certain that he was a great artist.

Those who stopped to look over his shoulder when he was drawing smiled to see such scribbles as might have been made by a child of eight.

"I never had the chance to take lessons," the old man would say, "and never had the time to develop my talent. But now, with this umbrella business to keep me going, I am getting my hand in." Then he would concentrate heavily while the pencil added to the effects of his picture and say, "Do you know, I wouldn't be surprised if I found a market for this."

Mackinson's stand was in a side street and across from the office of a wholesale concern. He had drawn every building in sight and so welcomed any new subject that came within his range. One afternoon his pencil was busy with a large automobile which had stopped near the wholesale house. It was built for speed and luxury, and the old man forgot the umbrella business, his need for money, and the people who passed as he made a picture which, to him, was his masterpiece. He had all but finished when two men ran out of the office, leaped into the machine and drove off.

"Just my luck!" complained the artist, "now I have to finish it by memory."

But there was not time to finish. Things began to happen in the quiet street with a rapidity that was amazing. A patrol wagon clanged up, a crowd collected and there were policemen everywhere. To Mackinson it was bewildering. Instead of being curious he was frightened, like a child lost in a crowd on the street.

A police captain paused in front of the umbrella man, looked in a book, then made a motion.

"You will come with me," he said kindly. "We are going to take care of you, see that you get a comfortable place to live."

This was the law. He could trust the law. "But my business; I must keep on with my business."

"After a while. When it gets warmer again."

Mackinson was not to know that men thought him incapable of caring for himself, that the scrawls he called pictures and his destitute appearance had been responsible for reports which brought him to the station.

"I guess," said the captain, "they'll have to call him a vagabond and send him over for a while. Maybe there is some institution."

"When the weather gets warmer," said Mackinson in his cell, and he drew his paper from under his arm and started drawing. When they came to get him, that he might go before the judge, he was drawing an interior of the cell, but it was not this picture that drew the attention of the captain who, following the case with sympathy, had come for the man.

"When," he said, pointing to a drawing that had fallen on the floor, "did you make that?"

"And that automobile, was it the one which went away just before we came?"

Mackinson smiled. This captain had recognized it was an automobile he had drawn.

"The very one, just as it was there, only it went away before I could put the finishing touches."

"Listen," the captain was intensely interested, "that number there, are you sure it is the same as the one on the machine?"

"I am a real artist," said old man Mackinson, "and I never make mistakes."

It is a fact they caught the men who robbed the wholesale house from the odd drawing made by the umbrella mender. And Mackinson's reward was release from jail, release with a sum of money paid him by a man in a high hat.

"He isn't a vag now; he's got money," said the captain, "and I guess, anyway, he isn't doing anybody any harm."

Birds' Home a Mailbox

Daily deliveries of mail didn't keep a pair of bluebirds from choosing an R. F. D. box near Brooks, Maine, for their home. PRIEST SLAIN AFTER BATTLE WITH TROOPS

Thirty Catholics Are Killed In Mexico--Federals Lose Three In Combat.

Thirty-four rebelling Catholics were killed and a Catholic priest, Father Sedano, was captured and summarily court-martialed and executed after two brisk combats with federal troops in the state of Jalisco, says a bulletin issued by the presidential bureau at Mexico City, Wednesday.

One corporal and two soldiers were killed and one officer and nine soldiers wounded.

The report of the affrays was received from Military Commandant Ferreirs.

The first fight took place at Los Mezquites, where 38 rebels, headed by Sedano and another chieftain named Placencia, were entrenched. This fight lasted four hours, and 14 rebels were killed and two captured and executed. The others fled, Sedano being taken by the troops and later shot.

The second engagement lasted three hours, after 250 rebels, commanded by Alberto Parajas, Francisco Losa, Florencio Zaragoza and Jesus Nunez attacked federal troops under Colonel Ortiz Sevilla at Portezuelo. The rebels were dispersed and fled to the mountains, abandoning 18 dead and many wounded.

CELEBRATION AT LOGAN ELM PARK SUNDAY

Ohio History Day at Logan Elm park will attract a large crowd of people Sunday afternoon and a good program will be rendered beginning at two o'clock.

The headliner will be a full blooded Indian, Koo-tut-pah-he-too, which means in English "Peaceful Bear."

The invocation will be pronounced by Rev. Benjamin DeCamp, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church; salute to the flag by the audience, led by General George Florence; songs and music by the Laurelville band.

The Independent Order of Red Men will have an encampment in the park, and Mr. Cameron, one of their number will deliver the famous speech of Chief Logan.

Parking space will be provided at 25 cents an automobile. Entrance to the park is free. Come and bring the children.

OPENING OF RODEO SHOW BIG PROGRAM

Everything is in readiness at Mason's show grounds for the opening tonight of King Bros. Wild West rodeo, which is scheduled for a three days' stand in Circleville under the auspices of the Eagles. Tents, seats for three thousand people and an arena have been erected.

The arena in which the wild west events will be given is 100 feet wide and 250 feet long and will be brilliantly lighted by twelve 1000 W. T. electric lights.

King Bros. have 75 head of horses and 15 long horned Texas steers which will be used in the performance. There are twenty-five cowboys and cowgirls, hailing from eleven western and southwestern states. Colonel Jack King, in charge of the outfit, comes from the I. X. L. ranch at Henrietta, Texas, and is enroute to Columbia, South Carolina, where he will furnish all the attractions for the state fair.

Tonight, as an added attraction, S. L. Heiter, of Circleville, who is employed by the Dominion Construction company, will attempt to ride the famous bucking horse "War Paint." Mr. Heiter was reared at Sun Dance, Wyoming, and is a personal friend of Juan Carruthers, a Cuban cowboy, who is with Colonel King.

Kisses Were Sacred

Among old laws against kissing, those of Iceland appear to have been the most severe. Banishment was the penalty laid down for kissing another man's wife, either with or without her consent, and the same punishment was enforced for kissing an unmarried woman against her will.
